ABOUT TOUSHE

Berlin-based DJ and producer TOUSHE first stepped behind the decks over 15 years ago, developing a deep connection to electronic music and the dancefloor along the way.
Somewhere between House and Techno, but never quite fitting into either, his sound draws from Speedhouse, Hard House and Hardgroove. Punchy basslines, driving percussion and irresistible grooves collide with cheeky vocals, unexpected rap samples and the occasional euphoric piano moment. Fast, energetic and sometimes a little unpredictable, but always with a playful twist and a smile in mind.

For TOUSHE, it's not just about playing great tracks. It's about feeling the room, connecting with the people in it and knowing when to push the energy or let a groove do its thing. His sets are shaped by curiosity, spontaneity and a genuine love for sharing music.
Having played at venues and festivals including Sisyphos, Kater Blau and Garbicz Festival, his mission remains simple: to create a welcoming space where people can let go, share a smile and dance without holding back.

Fast grooves for smiling faces and moving hips.
